

The Longhorn Network is hiring 5 interns that attend the University of Texas to assist with production needs. These interns will serve a similar role as a Production Assistant. All interns will work anywhere from 20-25 hours a week. We're willing to work around the interns class schedules. All interns will be paid $9.00 an hour no housing or other benefits will be provided . The internship will be 12 – 14 weeks long during the Fall semester. All interns will set goals and expectations for the internship the first day of work with there Longhorn Network Supervisor. There will be an evaluation in the middle and end of the internship to make sure the intern is on track. If the intern exceeds expectations the option to extend the internship another semester will be available.

The interns responsibilities will include but not be limited to the following:

- Observing production including live events and tapings
- Logging tapes
- Cutting highlights for shows
- Assisting during shoots
- Submitting story ideas
- Running teleprompter for live broadcasts

Requirements:

- Applicant must be a Sophomore, Junior or Senior and in good standing with the University
- Preferred majors Sport Management, Physical Culture & Sports, Communication Studies, Broadcast journalism, and RTF
- Must have prior production internship or work experience
- Must be willing to work flexible hours evenings and weekend may be required

Student Application Deadline – Friday, August 5, 2011 at 11:59 p.m.

Interview Dates: August 15 & 16, 2011

To apply submit resume via e-mail to <mailto:careersrvcs@yahoo.com>