

4. Women's Suffrage and the Media

"Official Program Woman Suffrage Procession, Washington D.C., March 3 1913"

"Why Not Go The Limit?" (circa 1900, citation in William Cole, Women are Wonderful, 1956, p. 94). [Full title is "WHY NOT GO THE LIMIT? FOR THE BENEFIT OF THOSE LADIES WHO ASK FOR THE RIGHT TO SMOKE IN PUBLIC. Cleopatra Café. Drink Ladies Auxiliary Rye. Chew Scrub-Lady's Delight. Try Our Progressive Sours. Bock Beer. Little Mother Brewing Co. Evelyn Cassidy Association Dance and Smoker. Women sometimes; Ladies never, spit on the floor. Ladies will please refrain from throwing cigar butts in the free lunch. No scrapping allowed on premises."]

4. Women's Suffrage and the Media

"We Don't Know What We Want"
(circa 1908)

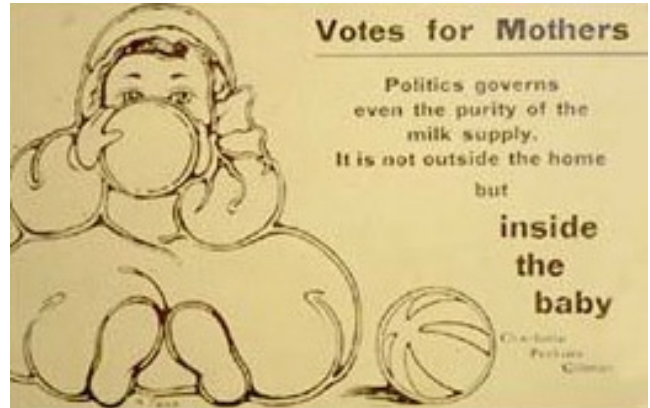

"Liberty"
(circa 1913)

4. Women's Suffrage and the Media

"When Women Have Their Rights"
(1913)

"Votes for Mothers"
(circa 1915)

4. Women's Suffrage and the Media

"Election Day 1909"
(1909)

"Goddess of Liberty"
(circa 1910)

4. Women's Suffrage and the Media

"Which Do You Prefer? The Home or Street Corner for Woman: Vote No on Woman Suffrage" (1915)

"Idealized Motherhood" (circa 1915)